

Short Biography

Full Name: Dr KB Julie Reddy

Position: Chief Executive Officer

Organisation: South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA)

Country: South Africa

Dr KB (Julie) Reddy is currently the Chief Executive Officer of the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA). She has held senior management positions in SAQA since October 2012. Prior to that, she held senior management and leadership positions for over 30 years in the international and South African educational and skills development space, including as the founding CEO of the Chemical Industries Education and Training Authority and CEO of the Sector Education and Training Authority for Secondary Agriculture, and as Country Director/Chief of Party of the USA based international Advancing Basic Education and Literacy Project. Dr Reddy is currently a Council member of the three Quality Councils, the CHE, QCTO and Umalusi, the QC for General and Further Education and Training in SA and the National Skills Authority and the Deputy President's Human Resources Development Council. Internationally, Dr Reddy is a member on the GDN Board of Directors and a UNESCO-UIL appointed International Juror for its Learning Cities Award. Her academic qualifications include both a MSc as a Fulbright Scholar, and a PhD from Cornell University in the USA.